ARCHAEOLOGICAL RECORD - LEPAKSHI VEERABHADRA TEMPLE
CENTRAL EPIGRAPHY & MONUMENT CONSERVATION REPORT
==========

Monument: Veerabhadra Temple & Hanging Pillar Complex
Location: Sri Sathya Sai District, Andhra Pradesh, India
Coordinates: Latitude 13.8000 N, Longitude 77.6060 E
Construction Period: 1530-1540 CE
Patron: Virupanna Nayaka & Viranna (Emperor Achyuta Deva Raya)

Key Architectural Wonders:
1. The Hanging Pillar: Gravity-defying granite pillar of the Natya Mandapa that remains suspended with no contact with the temple floor.
2. Monolithic Nandi: India's largest monolithic bull carved from a single granite boulder (4.5 m high, 8.2 m long).
3. Nagalinga: Colossal seven-hooded granite cobra sheltering a black Shivalingam.
4. Ceiling Frescoes: Vast 16th-century mineral murals portraying epics.

Significance & Categorisation:
Monument of National Importance under Archaeological Survey of India (ASI).
Classification: Temple, Hanging Pillar, Vijayanagara, Veerabhadra, Frescoes.